

REAL ID

The REAL ID Act of 2005 was enacted by Congress from the 9/11 Commission's recommendation. "The Act established minimum security standards for state-issued drivers licenses and identification cards and prohibits certain federal agencies from accepting for official purposes licenses and identification cards that do not meet these standards." The purposes for using a REAL ID include:

- Accessing certain federal facilities;
- Boarding federally regulated commercial aircraft;
- Entering nuclear power plants.

The enforcement date for the REAL ID is nearing. It is set for May 7, 2025. All states are issuing the REAL ID compliant cards. Tennessee began issuing the REAL ID in the spring of 2019.
