Speakers: - Chief Kate Self - FGPD; Casey Cox – Cumberland County Sheriff; Chief Kirk McLaughlin – FGFD.

Absent: Cyd Riede - Membership,

The meeting was called to order at 9:00AM by John Lannamann (Chair). John welcomed and thanked all the coordinators for what they do for their neighborhoods; the coordinators are the backbone of the system and the eyes and ears of the neighborhoods. Thank you to Cyd for serving as the Membership Director, Dave Stout for serving as the Law Enforcement Director (Dave will be stepping down from his position), Leon Hairie as FGFD liaison, and Capt. Mark Rosser as FGPD liaison.

Evelyne then introduced the current FGNWC board members. She explained how the neighborhood watch coalition came about and how it is centered around the 4P's – crime Prevention, Personal safety, Preparedness, and Partnering. Evelyne introduced our first speaker, Fairfield Glade Police Chief Kate Self.

FGPD Chief Kate Self – Neighborhood Watch is a great organization and partners with our police department in many ways. Currently the FGPD receives emails and phone calls from neighborhood watch coordinators regarding scams residents are receiving. By notifying the police, the police are able to stay current on the scams or issues residents are experiencing. Since the police department cannot be everywhere, receiving this information helps them to stay on top of what is happening and affecting residents such as scams, speeders, suspicious people or cars. The Chief encourages everyone to continue those notifications. Chief Self thanked everyone for their donations to the hurricane victims. She and a fellow officer will be taking the items to Unicoi County to distribute and will also stay and help out those first responders for a few days.

Cumberland County Sheriff Casey Cox – Our neighborhood watch program is very instrumental in helping to keep crime rates low and to promote safety; the Sheriff wishes all neighborhood watch programs could operate as affectively and mimic the Fairfield Glade program. The Sheriff said today in Fairfield Glade it is not so much watching out for criminals but looking out for our neighbors. With the way the country is now, with people staying indoors, this is where we need to focus – looking out for the people in our community. The Fairfield Glade Police Department is better today than it ever has been, and this community is safer today than ever. The biggest crimes in Fairfield Glade are scams, scams and scams and contractor fraud. Everyone is encouraged to spread the word. No one should feel embarrassed if they fall victim to a scam, these criminals are very good at what they do. During his first year as sheriff there were 450 burglaries and 100 drug arrests in the county. Sheriff Cox strongly believes the drug problem is the main reason for crime. That theory has proven correct as those numbers have switched and currently, we have more than 400 drug arrests and 117 burglaries this year. The partnering of the sheriff's department and the FG police department is working. With Fairfield Glade being a retirement county Sheriff Cox said he does not need to spend as much time in Fairfield due to our outstanding police department. If a critical call is received in any other area of the county, he must respond immediately to secure the crime scene, where the Fairfield Glade police can handle the scene and get things moving.

A question was raised whether illegal immigrants are a problem in the county. The Sheriff said there is no influx of illegals in Cumberland County. They received a call regarding Haitians seen at Walmart, but he assured the caller they come every year to work for a local produce company and they have never caused a problem.

FGFD Chief Kirk McLaughlin – The Fire Chief thanked Police Chief Self on helping coordinate the collection of items for the hurricane victims and providing the space for the collection and loading of the vehicles. One of the things he has been working on is creating partnerships with the FG police. The fire and police departments are currently working together on an EMR program to supplement the ambulance service. The goal is to train emergency responders so they can provide assistance to residents when an ambulance is 20-30 minutes away. Chief McLaughlin said John Wedgworth has been instrumental in introducing him to people in the county that we need to rely on. These partnerships he has made is helping to promote public safety here in Fairfield. The emergency services building is picking up steam, and they are reviewing the drawings for the new building which may be started next year. The new building will be located at the corner of Maintenance and Catoosa. Seven new recruits have recently attended the fire academy and five of them will train for interior firefighting.

Evelyne acknowledged the accomplishments of FGNWC in 2024:

- A new map showing the location of FGNWC groups and the location of signage.
- update Tip Sheets which are located on our website.
- assisted the FGPD with their Scam Seminar and Medicare scam updates by Evelyne.
- participated in the Information Fair.
- supported and participated in CarFit and Safety Day.
- supported the FGPD in the Gun Safety program.
- John spoke to the Citizens Academy class about the FGNWC organization.
- provided funds to the FGPD to purchase tactical support equipment.
- purchased promotional items.

FGNWC is always looking for coordinators to help grow the coalition and organize more neighborhoods.

Dave Stout thanked everyone for all they do to help support our organization and Fairfield Glade. At the FGNWC Annual meeting, elections must take place as needed. He advised the coordinators of the requirements stated in our Charter regarding elections. Having a quorum present, Dave stated there are three positions up for election and three applications have been received. Unless a nomination is received from the floor, the three applicants will be elected (two Directors currently on the board have agreed to remain and one new applicant to replace the departure of Davd Stout). Dave asked for nominations from the floor, none were received, therefore it is an uncontested election. The new board member, Darby Lannom, was welcomed along with the continued service of Cyd Riede and Jan Priest.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a drawing was conducted for the centerpieces (mums) located on the tables.

The next Board meeting will be held on November 13, 2024, at 8:00AM, at the FG Police Department. FGNWC Board Meetings are open to all residents.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:50AM.

Respectfully submitted: Phyllis Molnar, Secretary
